The cost of the report must be borne by the applicant or the individual. We have not yet assembled a list of "acceptable" search firms. At a minimum, the firm must demonstrate that they have sufficient resources and are properly licensed to conduct the search of the background and that the firm is not affiliated with or an interest of any of the individuals under investigation. The background investigation report must be in English and provided directly to the Department.

At a minimum, the report must contain the following:

1. A comprehensive credit report/history including the actual credit report as well as a summary.
2. Civil court and bankruptcy court records for the past 10 years, including a search of the court data in the country (ies), states, towns, where the individual resided and worked and in contiguous areas.

4. Education records.
5. Employment history.

6. Media history including an electronic search of national and local publications, wire services and business publications.

7. Regulatory history, particularly securities, insurance, mortgage-related, real estate, etc., if applicable.

The report must be accompanied by a search summary letter which identifies the scope of the search, indicate the independence of each firm from the individuals and the applicant, and identifies a person and provides contact information if questions should arise.

If an individual has had such a report, which meets the specifications listed above, prepared for another licensing agency within the past 12 months, the individual may have the investigating agency submit a copy of that report to us. In addition to the documentation generally required, the individual would need to submit a statement of no material change.

In processing the information you provide, the Department may cause a consumer credit report to be prepared in accordance with the provisions of Title 1.6, Part 4, Division Third of the Civil Code (commencing at Section 1785.1), or an investigative consumer report to be prepared in accordance with the provisions of Title 1.6A, Part 4, Division Third of the Civil Code (commencing at Section 1786), or the respective successor statutes.
