DESIST AND REFRAIN ORDER
(For violations of section 25110 of the Corporations Code)

The California Corporations Commissioner finds that:

1. At all relevant times, Luciano Development Partnership, L.P. is or was a California limited liability partnership with its principal place of business located at 5700 Canoga Avenue, Suite 300, Woodland Hills, CA 91367 and doing business in California. Luciano Development Partnership, L.P. has or does participate in film production partnership(s) with Luciano Screen Partners, L.L.C. (herein, collectively, “Luciano”). Luciano Screen Partners, L.L.C. is a California limited liability company with its principal place of business also at 5700 Canoga Avenue, Suite 300, Woodland Hills, CA 91367 and also doing business in California. Luciano did or does engage in the development and production of films in the media entertainment industry throughout the State of California.

2. At all relevant times, Monarch Productions, L.L.C. (herein “Monarch”) is or was a California limited liability company with its principal place of business located at 4161 Los Feliz Blvd., #A-1, Los Angeles, California 90027 and doing business in California. Monarch purportedly did or does engage in the development and production of films in the media entertainment industry throughout the State of California.

3. At all relevant times, Full Force Films, L.L.C. (herein “Full Force”) is or was a California limited liability company with its principal place of business located at 5700 Canoga Ave., Ste. 300, Woodland Hills, California, 91367 and doing business in California. Full Force also purportedly did or does engage in the development and production of films in the media entertainment industry throughout the State of California.

4. Beginning in or about October 2007, Luciano participated as partner and promoter of the development and production of a film commonly known as “The Story of Charlie “Lucky” Luciano”, (herein “Project”). The Project involved the development and production of a film purportedly concerning the historical organized crime figure or “gangster” Charles Luciano.

5. At all relevant times, William Costello (herein "Costello") and Steven M. Berez (herein “Berez”) are representatives of Luciano, Full Force, Monarch, or the Project. Specifically, Berez did or does represent to others that he is the “executive producer” of the Project, Monarch or Luciano.

6. Beginning in or about October 2007, Luciano, Monarch, Full Force, Berez, and Costello, offered and sold securities in the form of investment contracts consisting of limited partnership interests in Luciano Development Partnership, L.P.

7. The purported purpose of the offerings was to fund the development and production of the Project. In return, investors would recoup their capital investment and receive a twenty percent (20%) return, based on their investment interest, from the purported profits of the Project.

8. Beginning in or about October 2007, Luciano, Monarch, Berez, and Costello offered and sold the above described investment contracts in the State of California to investors by way of making general solicitations through telemarketing or making “cold calls” in California.

9. These investment contracts were offered or sold in California in issuer transactions. The Department of Corporations has not issued a permit or other form of qualification authorizing any person to offer and sell these investment contracts in California.

Based on the foregoing findings, the California Corporations Commissioner finds that the investment contracts in Luciano Development Partnership, L.P. offered and sold by Luciano Development Partnership, L.P., Luciano Screen Partners L.L.C., Monarch Productions, L.L.C., Full Force, L.L.C., The Story of Charlie “Lucky” Luciano, William Costello, and Steven M. Berez are securities subject to qualification under the California Corporations Code. These securities are or have been offered and sold without being qualified or exempt, in violation of Section 25110 of the California Corporations Code.

Pursuant to Section 25532 of the California Corporations Code, Luciano Development Partnership, L.P., Luciano Screen Partners L.L.C., Monarch Productions, L.L.C., Full Force, L.L.C.,
The Story of Charlie “Lucky” Luciano, William Costello, and Steven M. Berez are hereby ordered to desist and refrain from the further offer or sale in the State of California of securities, including, but not limited to investment contracts consisting of limited partnership interests in Luciano Development Partnership, L.P., unless and until qualification has been made under said law or unless exempt.

This Order is necessary, in the public interest, for the protection of investors and consistent with the purposes, policies, and provisions of the California Corporations Code.
