18
19 The Complainant, the Commissioner of Business Oversight (Commissioner), of the Department
20 of Business Oversight (Department), finds that:

21 1. On or about May 16, 2018, Alexander Thomas Carlucci (Carlucci) filed an 22 application for a mortgage loan originator (MLO) license with the Commissioner by submitting a
23 Form MU4 through the Nationwide Mortgage Licensing System (NMLS) (hereinafter, Application)
24 pursuant to Financial Code section 50140.

25 2. In his Application, Carlucci answered “yes” to a Criminal Disclosure Question F (2), 26 and “yes” to a Criminal Judicial Disclosure Question J (2). Carlucci’s Application disclosed an 27 action filed by the Securities Exchange Commission (SEC) against Carlucci and the following 28 defendants: Shane Fleming; Bret Beshey; Peter Kourtis; Christopher Bonvissuto; Austin Mansur;

1 Eric Weller; and Dimitri Kandalepas (collectively Defendants), on September 29, 2017, in the case,
2 SEC v. Fleming, et. al., Case No. 1:17-cv-07049 (2017 Complaint).

3 3. The 2017 Complaint alleged that Defendants unlawfully engaged in insider trading in 4 the securities of Life Time Fitness, Inc. (Life Time), a Minnesota corporation, in advance of an 5 announcement that Life Time was going to be acquired by private equity firms.

6 4. The 2017 Complaint revealed that in about February 2015, Carlucci received insider
7 information about the impending acquisition of Life Time from a co-defendant and in about March 8 2015, Carlucci purchased an option based on the information he obtained and realized illegal profits
9 of approximately $14,492.00. Carlucci was further alleged to have paid approximately $900.00 as a 10 kickback for the tip provided by the co-defendant. According to the 2017 Complaint, the 11 Defendants obtained total illegal trading profits of approximately $866,629.00 because of their 12 insider dealing.

13 5. The 2017 Complaint noted that by engaging in the conduct described in the 14 complaint, Defendants:

15 Directly or indirectly, in connection with the purchase or sale of 16 securities, by the use of means or instrumentalities of interstate 17 commerce, or of the mails, with scienter: (a) employed devices, 18 schemes, or artifices to defraud; (b) made untrue statements of 19 material fact or omitted to state material facts necessary in order to 20 make the statements made, in the light of the circumstances under 21 which they were made, not misleading; and (c) engaged in acts, 22 practices, or courses of business which operated or would operate as 23 a fraud or deceit upon other persons, including purchasers and sellers 24 of securities.

25 6. Further, the 2017 Complaint disclosed that on or about September 28, 2017, the U.S.
26 Attorney's Office filed a criminal complaint against the Defendants in the U.S. District Court,
27 Northern District of Illinois in the matter of United States v. Beshey, et. al., Case No. 1:17-cr-00643, 28 for engaging in insider trading and securities fraud. On or about November 8, 2017, the Northern District Court of Illinois entered an Order releasing Carlucci from criminal prosecution after Carlucci signed a "pretrial diversion agreement that acknowledges responsibility for criminal conduct" relating to the charges filed against him. On April 24, 2018, the SEC entered an Order

1 permanently restraining and enjoining the Defendants, including Carlucci from among other things,
2 engaging in the sale or purchase of securities by means of fraud in violation of the Securities and 3 Exchange Act of 1934. Carlucci was ordered to pay disgorgement in the amount of $14,491.64, with 4 prejudgment interests in the amount of $1,307.21.

5 7. The Commissioner determined that based on the SEC’s action against Carlucci and 6 the facts upon which such action was issued, Carlucci failed to demonstrate such financial 7 responsibility, character, and general fitness as to command the confidence of the community and to 8 warrant a determination that the mortgage loan originator will operate honestly, fairly, and 9 efficiently within the purposes of the CFL, a requirement for licensure under Financial Code section 10 22109.1, subdivision (a)(3).

11 8. On November 21, 2018, the Commissioner issued a Notice of Intention to Deny 12 Application for Mortgage Loan Originator License, Statement of Issues, and accompanying 13 documents (Notice of Intention to Deny) based on the above findings.

14 9. On December 13, 2018, the Commissioner served Carlucci with the Notice of 15 Intention to Deny via certified mail, return receipt requested. Carlucci did not request a hearing and 16 the time to request a hearing has expired.

17 NOW GOOD CAUSE APPEARING THEREFOR, it is hereby ordered that the Application 18 filed by Alexander Thomas Carlucci for a mortgage loan originator license is denied. This order is 19 effective as of the date hereof.

20 Dated: February 15, 2019
