This disclosure document summarizes certain provisions of the franchise agreement and other information in plain language. Read this disclosure document and all agreements carefully.

If Belmont offers you a franchise, it must provide this disclosure document to you 14 calendar-days before you sign a binding agreement with, or make a payment to, the franchisor or an affiliate in connection with the proposed franchise sale.

[Maryland, New York and Rhode Island require that we give you this disclosure document at the earlier of the first personal meeting or 10 business days before the execution of the franchise or other agreement or the payment of any consideration that relates to the franchise relationship.]

[Michigan, Oregon, and Washington require that we give you this disclosure document at least 10 business days before the execution of any binding franchise or other agreement or the payment of any consideration, whichever occurs first.]

If Belmont does not deliver this disclosure document on time or if it contains a false or misleading statement, or a material omission, a violation of federal law and state law may have occurred and should be reported to the Federal Trade Commission, Washington, DC 20580 and the state agency listed on Exhibit A.

Instructions for Preparing Form H – Sample Receipt Page

All Franchise Disclosure Documents must include two Receipt Pages, which are to be attached as the last pages of the disclosure document. All Exhibits to the Franchise Disclosure Document must be listed.

As long as any of the Franchise Filing States have different delivery requirements, the third and/or fourth paragraphs of the sample Receipt Page must be used in a Franchise Disclosure Document for a multi-state registration filed in the Franchise Filing States listed. If a state amends its delivery requirements to conform to the FTC's 14 calendar-day delivery rule, that state's differing delivery requirements should be deleted from the Receipt Pages.
