DESIST AND REFRAIN ORDER

(For violations of sections 12200, 12314 and 12314.1 of the Financial Code)

The California Corporations Commissioner ("Commissioner") finds that:

1. The Commissioner is responsible for enforcing laws that govern persons that provide debt management/negotiation/consolidation/settlement programs, prorating and bill paying services under the Check Sellers, Bill Payers, and Proraters Law.

- 2. American Debt Negotiation & Settlement, LLC, which does business under other names including ADNS had offices located at 1317 North San Fernando Blvd., Suite 531, in Burbank, California but it never filed with the California Secretary of State's Office. The company's Chief Executive Officer, Harold Reis, filed with the Better Business Bureau ("BBB") in Colton, California seeking BBB membership. In May 2002 the BBB contacted Harold Reis, and informed him that the BBB had rejected the company's application for BBB membership based on the BBB's concerns about the nature of the company's activities in the debt counseling/consolidation industry.
- 3. Thereafter on August 8, 2002 a fictitious business name, American Debt Negotiation was filed in Los Angeles county describing its business as "Credit & Debt Counseling Services. This business listed its location at 3033 N. Avon Street, Burbank, California 91504. In March 2004 National Legal Debt Centers, Inc., filed with the California Secretary of State's Office, listing Christopher Reis as its president and its business address was also at 3033 N. Avon Street, Burbank, California. The company also did business as National Legal Debt Centers; NLDC; ADNSGroup National Legal Debt Centers; ADNS Group, LLC; ADNS, LLC; NDS, LLC, and Your Debt Lawyer. None of the foregoing is authorized to practice law in the State of California. In 2006 Discover Bank sued National Legal Debt Centers, Inc. In communications with the BBB National Legal Debt Centers, Inc., claims it is not affiliated with American Debt Negotiation but admits that clients of American Debt Negotiation "became our clients after they had gone through a change of ownership." American Debt Negotiation also does business as ADN, ACR, Universal Financial Solutions and UFS and at times was located at 3844 Lugo Avenue, Lynwood, California. During relevant times Peter Adler was associated with American Debt Negotiation. For convenience all the foregoing hereinafter will be referred to as "American Debt Negotiation."
- 4. American Debt Negotiation falsely represents it "can settle consumers unsecured debt for less than half of what they owe and that by using our proprietary methods, we can normally help you get completely out of debt within 10 to 36 months."
- 5. American Debt Negotiation solicits consumers via the Internet on websites that include, but are not limited to, www.americandebtnegotiation.com and www.american-debtnegotiation-settlements.com. American Debt Negotiation uses several toll free telephone numbers including (866) 427-4488 and (877) 232-0688. It also obtains consumers through its "ADN's Referral Program" by offering to pay current clients $100 for each person referred and accepted into the ADN debt settlement program.

- 6. American Debt Negotiation targeted consumers claiming it was a "Nationally Recognized Leader" that "Announces New 'Mortgage Savers' Program That Helps Consumers Achieve Financial Security and Revolutionized the Debt Settlement and Debt Consolidation Industries." It claims it "designed the Mortgage Savers program as an integrated package to support clients wanting to refinance their homes to pay down overwhelming credit card debt." CEO Harold Reis claims that "[s]ince starting this program . . . many major mortgage lenders have caught on and are now working with us to provide a much needed solution for borrowers who have had a hardship."
- 7. American Debt Negotiation is not an accredited business with the BBB and has an unsatisfactory record with the BBB having processed at least 68 complaints from consumers about the company. Consumers complain that debt negotiation services are not performed, creditors are not contacted, refunds are not made and there is a lack of communication and disclosure that set up fees are non-refundable. Consumers also complaint that creditors are not paid and that there is further damage to a consumer's credit rating. American Debt Negotiation responded to only 13 of the BBB consumer complaints and failed to respond to others leaving 54 complaints unanswered.
- 8. American Debt Negotiation begins the debt settlement process for a consumer only after it has obtained extensive and detailed personal and financial information about a consumer's identity, credit cards and bank accounts through an application process.
- 9. In exchange for the future services that American Debt Negotiation promises to provide to a consumer it requires consumers to pay various fees including "set up fees" of approximately 3.5% of a consumer's total debt managed. Consumers must pay "monthly administrative fees" of at least $50, and there is a retainer fee. Additionally consumers pay settlement fees equal to 25% of the difference between the creditor's claim and the amount the creditor agrees to accept in full payment of a creditor's claim. If a settlement with a creditor involves installment payments or one or more deferred payments then a fee 7% of the amount of the creditor's claim may be charged.

- 10. American Debt Negotiation falsely represents to consumers that they would have "a total savings of 222.8% of the original debt amount!" and claims that "[b]y investing the money that was being used to fund your American Debt Negotiation Settlement Program for the next 25 years you can accumulate a total of $1,595,416.25." (The bold type appears in the ad.)
- 11. A consumer is required to sign a document that gives American Debt Negotiation a power of attorney that grants it the power and authority to perform acts that may be necessary or convenient to deal with a consumer's creditors and the debts consumers owe them.
- 12. The Department of Corporations has jurisdiction over and regulates bill payers and proraters under the Check Sellers, Bill Payers and Proraters Law set forth in California Financial Code section 12000 et seq. California Financial Code section 12200, states:

No person shall engage in the business, for compensation, of selling checks, drafts, money orders, or other commercial paper serving the same purpose, or of receiving money as agent of an obligor for the purpose of paying bills, invoices, or accounts of such obligor, or acting as a prorater, nor shall any person, without direct compensation and not as an authorized agent for a utility company, accept money for the purpose of forwarding it to others in payment of utility bills, without first obtaining a license from the commissioner.

The definition of proraters, found in Financial Code section 12002.1, states:

A prorater is a person who, for compensation, engages in whole or in part in the business of receiving money or evidences thereof for the purpose of distributing the money or evidences thereof among creditors in payment or partial payment of the obligations of the debtor.

13. All non-exempt bill payers and proraters in this state are required to be licensed by the Commissioner. American Debt Negotiation & Settlement, LLC; ADNS; ADNS Group, LLC; ADNS, LLC; ADNSGroup National Legal Debt Centers; American Debt Negotiation; ADN; National Legal Debt Centers, Inc.; National Legal Debt Centers; NLDC; NDS, LLC; Your Debt Lawyer; ACR; Universal Financial Solutions; UFS; Harold Reis; Christopher Reis and Peter Adler cannot satisfy the criteria to meet any statutory exemption from the CSBPPL licensing requirement. Thus, during all relevant times they have been unlicensed and unauthorized to act as

2	Financial Code sections 12314, 12314.1 and 12324.
