15	(For violations of sections 25110 and 25401 of the California Corporations Code)
17	The California Corporations Commissioner ("Commissioner") finds that:
18	1. At all relevant times herein, beginning as early as April 2008 through January 2010, RealFund
19	Investment Trust ("RealFund") was a business entity of unknown legal status whose principal
20	business address was a retail mailbox center located at 3500 Overland Avenue #110, Suite 111, Los
21	Angeles, California, 90034.
22	2. At all relevant times, Citiprop Corporation, Inc. ("Citiprop") was a suspended California

	-1- DESIST AND REFRAIN ORDER

3. At all relevant times, First Atlanta L.P. ("First Atlanta") was a Georgia limited partnership whose principal place of business was a retail mailbox center located at 1270 Caroline Street N.E. D120, Suite 235, Atlanta, Georgia, 30307.

4. At all relevant times, Weatherby L.P. ("Weatherby") was a Georgia limited partnership whose principal place of business was a retail mailbox center located at 1270 Caroline Street N.E. D120, Suite 235, Atlanta, Georgia, 30307.

5. At all relevant times, Citiprop was a general partner to First Atlanta and Weatherby.

6. At all relevant times, Luis Garg ("Garg") held himself out as the founder and president of RealFund, Citiprop, First Atlanta and Weatherby.

7. At all relevant times, Roger Jason Zakocs ("Zakocs") held himself out as an agent of Garg and promoter of RealFund, Citiprop, First Atlanta and Weatherby.

8. Garg's personal website (www.luisgarg.com) represents that Garg is a global philanthropist and "wealth coach" with over 45 years of entrepreneurial experience who is quickly becoming "the 'Charles Schwab' of real estate investing" by using "a time-tested and proven system to help his clients obtain financial freedom."

9. Beginning as early as April 2008, Garg and Zakocs solicited approximately $1 million from at least 20 investors residing in California and other states through in-person sales meetings, webinars, and public websites, including www.luisgarg.com and www.realhybridinvesting.com.

10. Garg's personal website invites investors interested in "profitable, affordable, solid and secure real estate participation for everyone" to contact him by submitting a website form request, calling a toll-free phone number (866-902-9627), or directly emailing Garg at LGarg@aol.com. Garg's website also falsely claimed that he maintained an office at Rockefeller Center in New York City.

11. After prospective investors were contacted by Garg or Zakocs, they were provided RealFund offering materials that included a "Real Estate Participation Agreement" setting forth the annual interest rate, typically 8% to 24%, to be paid to purchasers of "Real-CDs" issued by RealFund, Citiprop, First Atlanta and/or Weatherby. Investors were told their subscriptions for "participation units" ranging from $5,000 to $100,000 would be secured by first position deeds of trust on real property located in California and Georgia.

12. Investors were instructed to make payment to RealFund by personal check, via wire transfer to a bank account controlled by Garg, or by using Entrust Administration, Inc., a self-directed Individual Retirement Account administrator that published Garg's "rags-to-riches story" on its public website (www.entrustadministration.com) in November 2009 and sponsored webinars in which Garg promoted his "simple" concept of a "hybrid investment system" or "Real-CD."

13. On April 8, 2011, the Securities and Exchange Commission filed a civil action against Garg, Zakocs, RealFund, Citiprop, First Atlanta and Weatherby, seeking to permanently enjoin each from committing further violations of the federal securities laws, disgorgement of ill-gotten gains, and payment of civil penalties. (See Securities and Exchange Commission v. Luis Garg, Jason Zakocs, RealFund Investment Trust, First Atlanta LP, Weatherby LP and Citiprop Corporation, Case No.

CV11-02976, United States District Court, Central District of California.)

14. The offer and sale of the promissory notes or investment contracts in the form of "participation units" or "Real-CDs" by Garg, Zakocs, RealFund, Citiprop, First Atlanta and Weatherby was accomplished by general solicitation of residents of California and other states, some of whom were neither qualified nor accredited investors.

18 15. These securities were offered and sold in this state in issuer transactions. The California
19 Department of Corporations has not issued a permit or other form of qualification authorizing any 20 person to offer and sell these securities in this state.

In connection with the offer or sale of these securities, Garg, Zakocs, RealFund, Citiprop, First Atlanta and Weatherby made, or caused to be made, misrepresentations of material fact or omitted to state material facts necessary in order to make the statements made, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. These misrepresentations and omissions include, but are not limited to:

a. Failing to inform investors that the unqualified securities being offered as promissory notes or investment contracts in the form of "participation units" or "Real-CDs" are not exempt from qualification, in violation of section 25110 of the California Corporate Securities Law of 1968;
